

THE BOO DEVILS

· DARK COUNTRY ·

(Letra y Música: A. Navarro)

I've been running' with the Devil
Took my heart and saw it was black
Chasin' 4 some strangers 'til my wallet said goodbye...

I've been fightin' with my sorrow
Ran away and took my car
Begging for some money 'til my dignity left my mind...

Please, say to me, this one is gonna be free
Please, say to me, the next one is gonna be free

Feel a pale horse in my stomach
A fist aiming at my nose
I don't care about what's coming I don't care about this song...

Desperation is my mistress
Fuck'em dead! I hate you all!
When the loneliness is bitchin' then the Devil waits at home...

Please, say to me, this one is gonna be free
Please, say to me, the next one is gonna be free

Grabbed my 44' this morning
Iron tastes fine in my mouth
Running out of bullets, running out of good ol' times...

Got no tattoos of my lovers
They all drowned in bourbon shots
Got no fellas, got no family, got no future, got no past...

Please, say to me, this one is gonna be free
Please, say to me, the next one is gonna be free
