

THE BOO DEVILS

---

· DEAD MAN TALKIN' ·

(Letra y Música: A. Navarro)

I am not your brother
I'm just someone that he just found
What goes around, then comes around

Please, please tell my mother
Tell my mother that she was right
I lost the game, but it's worth the fight

Tell everybody we're doin' fine
As long as the wind blows and the sun is shinin'

I beg my father
I beg my father to wash my sins
The Lord, he couldn't forget those things

Tell everybody we're doin' fine
As long as the wind blows and the sun is shinin'
Tell everybody we're doin' fine
As long as the wind blows and the sun is shinin'

Found out, found out my fate now
Lied through my whole life, lay in my grave
These words are true, they're yours to take

Time to put my hands down
My heart is empty, my soul is clean
I couldn't do any better, if you know what I mean

Tell everybody we're doin' fine
As long as the wind blows and the sun is shinin'
Tell everybody we're doin' fine
As long as the wind blows and the sun is shinin'
Tell everybody we're doin' fine
As long as the wind blows and the sun is shinin'

Mother, father, brother, mother, baby...
Mother, father, brother, mother, baby...
Mother, father, brother, mother, baby...
