· HALLOWEEN NIGHT ·

(Letra y Música: J.M. Mora)

Once a year, every night of October 31
On the stroke of midnight
I'm back to life to walk among the living
'Til the break of dawn
I wear again my best suit
Silk tie, polished shoes, hair slicked back
Clean shaven and smelling of after shave

The last chime at twelve o'clock
The crow said: "Nevermore"
It's the moment for me
To leave the underworld

I get raised from my tomb
So smart as a groom
I am the man I was
I don't need a costume

Oh Halloween, my Halloween.
This is life...

Ghosts, vampires, demons and witches
Skeletons, pirates and other creatures
Zombies, cowboys, fairy and pumpkins
Princesses, heroes, monsters and mummies
It's Halloween Night!

Walkin' down the boneyard wall
City is a masquerade ball
Halloween is a fair
On sale on every mall

Trick or treat looking for candy
All flaring by Jack-o'-lanterns
Black cats sculpted in sugar
Calacas dancing a spooky rhumba

Oh Halloween, my Halloween.
This is life...

Halloween night! It's Halloween night!
Oh Lord, how great it's return to life!
Halloween night! It's Halloween night!
I don't mind paying the wicked price
I don't mind livin'! I don't mind dyin'!
I don't mind nuthin' but this Halloween Night!
This is life...
